A typical visit takes about 2 hours.
 Before you arrive, choose the sections that interest you most to optimise your visit.

The visit to the Museum and Castle is unique: the first part is dedicated to the history of armies and the wars between the Nineteenth century and the First World War. The second focuses on the Castle's architecture and our collections of modern-era weapons (15th-18th century). The itinerary concludes in the temporary exhibition space.

Between May and October you can visit the Artillery of the Great War 1914-1918 section, a few steps from the ticket office in Piazza del Podestà.
